

14th Annual Chicago Booth Recruiters Conference Agenda (2010)

Time	Title and Speaker	Room Number
8:30 - 9:10 a.m.	Check-in & Breakfast	HC104A&B
9:10 - 9:30 a.m.	Welcome Stacey Kole, Deputy Dean for the Full-Time MBA Program & Clinical Professor of Economics	HC104A&B
	Career Services Update Julie Morton, Associate Dean, Career Services
9:30 - 10:15 a.m.	This session will recap the 2009 - 10 recruiting season with insightful statistics on the industries and functions our students will be working in full time and during their summer internships. Details will also be provided on the sources of students' jobs and the number of students that accepted full-time positions through their internships. An overview of the number of companies that interviewed on campus and the number of job postings will also be provided.	HC104A&B
10:15 - 10:30 a.m.	Break
	Lab Experiences Linda Darragh, Clinical Professor of Entrepreneurship, and Robert H. Gertner, Joel F. Germunder Professor of Strategy and Finance
10:30 - 11:15 a.m.	In this session, hear from faculty members about the opportunities Booth students have to work directly with business organizations or on their own ventures as part of the curriculum. Experiential courses include Management Lab, New Venture Challenge, New Venture and Small Enterprise Lab, Private Equity/Venture Capital Lab, Real Estate Lab, and Social Entrepreneurship as well as independent studies. The classes provide unique opportunities for students to apply their academic knowledge and skills directly to real problems, receive faculty coaching, develop their skills in project management, and practice effective teamwork and making presentations.	HC104A&B
11:15 - 11:30 a.m.	Break
	Industry Breakout Sessions with Student Panelists
11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.	Career Services staff will moderate discussions with student panelists on the recruiting process. Panels will be divided by industry, providing you with the opportunity to listen in on a discussion about recruiting for corporate, consulting, or investment banking and investment management positions. During the panels, students will provide candid feedback on the recruiting process and answer any questions that you might have.	Consulting - HCC24 Corporate - HC215 IB/S&T/IM - HC219
	Lunch with Students & Career Services Staff Welcome from Edward A. Snyder, Dean & George Pratt Shultz Professor of Economics
12:30 - 1:45 p.m.	Please join us for lunch with your fellow colleagues, students, and Career Services staff. We invite you to dine with colleagues in your industry so the conversations started during the student panels can continue and you can gain further insight into the recruiting strategies that have worked for other firms recruiting for the same functions. You will have the opportunity to meet some of the new student group co-chairs who will also be in attendance during lunch.	HC104
	First Impressions Jeffrey J. Anderson, Associate Dean, Leadership Effectiveness and Development
	Participate in this interactive session hosted by the Leadership Development Office. Topics of discussion will include:
1:45 - 2:45 p.m.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ How Others Size Us Up: The Research and Implications ▪ What Matters the Most in Those First Few Seconds? ▪ What Role Do First Impressions Play in the Life of a Leader? ▪ Common Myths and Misunderstandings ▪ Mastering the Art: Using First Impressions to Establish Enduring Credibility 	HC104A&B
2:45 - 3 p.m.	Break

Full-Time MBA Programs Office

Panelists:

Ann Harvilla, Associate Dean and Dean of Students
Christine Gramhofer, Director, Academic Services
Jessica Pounds, Director of Diversity Affairs and Student Programs and Events

3 - 3:30 p.m.	In this moderated session, hear from a panel of staff members from the Full-Time MBA Programs Office as they talk about the many ways their office provides assistance and guidance during the students MBA pursuit. Topics of discussion will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Diversity▪ Leadership options through student groups and our approach to leadership▪ International support from orientation through the entire MBA process▪ Academic support	HC104A&B
------------------	---	----------

Admissions Update

Rose Martinelli, Associate Dean of Admissions

3:30 - 4 p.m.	This session will include a discussion on the admissions process at Chicago Booth. Demographic information on the class of 2011 will also be provided so that you can start to learn more about your future candidate pool.	HC104A&B
------------------	---	----------

4 - 4:30 p.m.	Closing Remarks and Q&A	HC104A&B
------------------	------------------------------------	----------
