POST-DOCTORAL PRINCIPAL RESEARCHER POSITION AT UCHICAGO BOOTH

The Booth School of Business at the University of Chicago (Chicago, Illinois) invites applications for a post-doctoral Principal Researcher (PR) position. The PR will tackle research problems related to honesty and ethical decision-making under the supervision of Prof. Emma Levine.

Specifically, this Principal Researcher will work on a project titled, “Honesty-Values Conflicts – In Medicine, Politics, and in Life,” funded by the John Templeton Foundation through The Honesty Project (https://honestyproject.philosophy.wfu.edu/science-of-honesty-projects/). The researcher will be part of an interdisciplinary team – including academic physicians, political scientists, psychologists, and organizational behavior scholars – examining how people experience and resolve difficult conversations in their personal and professional life. In addition to contributing to The Honesty Project work, the researcher will be encouraged to develop their own ideas in collaboration with Professor Levine and other faculty at the Center for Decision Research (CDR).

Term of appointment will be two years with competitive salary and benefits, either to start as soon as possible or in summer 2022. Review of applications is happening now, on a rolling basis until Feb 1. In order to receive full consideration, please submit your application materials electronically:

Application Materials:

1. Curriculum vitae
2. Cover Letter describing the candidate’s research and interest in the position
3. Two Letters of Recommendation (have letter writers email Emma.Levine@chicagobooth.edu)
4. Writing Sample (a published or working academic paper)
