

Rama Veeraragoo

Rama Veeraragoo is a Director at Credit Suisse, London. Rama practices as a lawyer in fixed income credit. Previously, he worked for a premier large international law firm. Since completing his MBA at Chicago Booth, Rama has also been involved in entrepreneurial ventures.

Rama is a co-founder and part of the management team of Chicago Angels Network. Rama is an advisor to Entrust GC, a firm which provides high calibre lawyers on a temporary basis to financial institutions to work on strategically significant matters. Rama is also advising a start-up (RareBridge) on strategy and fund raising. RareBridge is an early stage start-up which provides a new way for high calibre people and entrepreneurs to connect and interact across defined communities (Rarebridge.com). Rama is a qualified lawyer in England and Wales and the State of New York. Rama earned his MA(Oxon) in Law at Balliol College, Oxford University and earned an MBA with High Honors from The University of Chicago, Booth School of Business. Rama is fluent in English and French.